This series of clinics is for all of you who fall asleep when you are not the declarer. No longer will you be able to complain that you had lousy cards. Learning defense will make the game more interesting for you, especially since you will be defending 50% of the time. I personally feel that Defense is THE most important part of your game—and, of course, the hardest to learn.

All of these clinics will be held on Tuesdays 10 a.m. to noon at the Bridge Club at Port Royal Plaza. Full handouts of all of the hands discussed will be available, and the price of 15.00/clinic includes handouts, notes, and the two-hour workshop. Contact Kathie Walsh at 689-6239 or at kbwalsh@roadrunner.com for more information.
